How- to-be Poems

How-to-be poems inform the reader about a subject. The unique thing about these poems is that each line starts with a verb.

Write a poem about a career that you like.

Here is an example of a poem about being a coach:

Encourage your team to do their best
Plan skills to work on in practice
Meet with other coaches
Communicate with parents
Order uniforms
Build on the positives and make sure the kids have fun
Don't worry about the wins and losses
Know you are building character in the players
Be proud

The career I like is: _____
